Around Town Photos

This is Lompoc in 1886, looking north. The old Mission on South F Street remains still standing. The Fissure in the foreground was caused by earthquake and erosion in 1812

Lompoc Miguelito Canyon reservoir in 1969, which collapsed at one end and a million gallons of water gushed out. It was in the process of being refilled after repairs only one week earlier

This car was buried by mud and water caused by the collapsed reservoir in the picture above.

The Lompoc Steam Laundry was on the south side of the 100 block of E. Ocean Ave. (Where Gracian Feed is now). It was later Lafourcade's Dry Cleaning and Laundry

The old Post Office located on South I Street. Home of a US Coast and Geodetic Survey Benchmark

Ocean and H Street early 70's Linde building included furniture store, bar, and hotel

This picture was taken on H St. north of North Ave. looking south in the late 1950's.

This picture was taken on H St. north of Chestnut Ave. looking south in the mid 1950's.

This picture is of old City Hall now the Rec. Center on the corner of Walnut and I St. looking Northeast in the mid 1950's.
