

Stormwater/Wastewater

Stormwater

Stormwater runs off roofs, down gutters, into lawns, off trees and into storm drains. Storm drains take the stormwater out to the Santa Ynez River and eventually to the ocean.

Wastewater

Wastewater runs out of the sink, toilet, or shower into the sanitary sewer. Sanitary sewers take the wastewater across Lompoc to the Lompoc Regional Wastewater Reclamation Facility where it is treated and cleaned before it is released into the Santa Ynez River.