Pastor Craig, New Beginnings Church – indicated that the church is presently leasing space in an existing building on the site, identified the need for affordable housing within the City, and stated his approval of the project.

PLUBLIC HEARING CLOSED

Mr. Rider responded to Mr. Silva's concerns, noting that the existing residential development to the north is closer to Mr. Silva's warehouse than the proposed residential which is buffered by both the concrete batch plant and the proposed industrial buildings.

Commissioner Harman asked if the existing 38,000 square foot building will be demolished, if there will be pedestrian access to Laurel Avenue from the residential project, and expressed concern with the second story level of the residential portion of the project and potential noise factor reaching second story levels. Mr. Rider confirmed that noise from traffic on Laurel Avenue could reach the second story level. Commissioner Harman asked who would be responsible for maintenance of any mural on the site and Mr. Rider indicated it would be the Home Owners Association. Commissioner Fink asked Mr. Dixon, Project Engineer, about the entrance to the residential portion of the project from V Street. Mr. Dixon replied that a protected left turn lane will be provided and that the entrance will be treated as a driveway.

Commissioner Grames-Lyra stated that the project is needed, is very attractive, and indicated disappointment in the affordable housing design, citing only one bathroom that is located upstairs and is unsuitable for handicapped citizens. Commissioner Grames-Lyra discussed the price range of considered affordable housing with Mr. Rider. Mr. Rider stated that purchasers of affordable housing must meet set income criteria. Commissioner Grames-Lyra expressed concern with trucks parked on Laurel Avenue all night with the engine running. Mr. Rider had no comment. Commissioner Grames-Lyra asked what type of businesses would occupy the industrial section of the project and Mr. Rider indicated that some office section is allowable but will mostly house 'make it and fix it' businesses. Commissioner Grames-Lyra approved of the proposed earth buffer, noting that this aspect is appealing.

Commissioner Harman asked about the occupancy of the Walnut Grove development and Mr. Rider indicated the development is fully occupied. Commissioner Harman asked if the railroad track and railroad signage on V Street will be removed and Mr. Rider responded affirmatively. Commissioner Fink noted that improvement to the property, that industrial opportunities will be limited for the future, and expressed concern with the intersection (on V Street) and the driveway approach to the development. Commissioner Grames-Lyra stated that the driveway would present a traffic pattern problem. Commissioner Harman agreed with the previous comment of Commissioner Fink regarding loss of future industrial opportunity. Commissioner Fink discussed the truck parking with City Attorney Sharon.

Commissioner Ruhge commented that trucks are parked, not only on Laurel Avenue but, throughout the City, noting that she would prefer not to reside near a truck's engine running, and stated the project was very nice. Commissioner Rodenhi suggested that the Planning staff provide architectural comments on the project. Commissioner Fink stated that 95% of products are brought into the City by truck, noted the importance of maintaining the local trucking industry, and is undecided on the issue. Commissioner Harman asked Mr. Dixon about traffic from the project. Mr. Dixon indicated that the City had performed a traffic study, the City Engineer had reviewed the study, and it was concluded that the (traffic) was acceptable. Commissioner Grames-Lyra expressed appreciation of the residential architecture, with exception of the affordable housing unit bathrooms. Commissioner Rodenhi stated the proposed project appears to be similar to the Walnut Grove development, approves of the project style, and commented on the difficulties choosing between housing and industrial.
