2. Discussion regarding TOTAL event and survey reviews

Commissioner Cacho provided some recommendations on the sessions offered and the speakers. She suggested ensuring the speakers align with the message the conference is conveying. Other suggestions included renaming the teen conference or keeping it as a leadership conference. Commissioner Hilario stated that he believes a leadership conference should be leadership based whereas a teen conference would be harder to market. Commissioner Cacho also recommended inviting speakers to provide a presentation to the Commission regarding their breakout session. Commissioner Cortes commented on the om the public library's "All About YOUth" event and suggested doing something like that for teen outreach.
