

Candidate Statement for

Mayor

City of Lompoc

James Ian Mosby

Age:60

Occupation: Business Owner/Biologist

The recent utility rate increases and over taxing of these utilities has made day to day choices difficult in Lompoc. City Hall gets richer and the residents get poorer.

Crime has become rampant in our community. We need to put politics aside and get back to focusing on a clear direction. We must invest in technology, predictive analytics and support the victims of crimes. We need to invest in violence prevention groups, community organizations, the County, police and fire and use an all of the above approach.

As your Mayor, I will use the fundamental approach of NO new general TAXES, NO new UTILITY rate increases, STOP the over TAXING of the UTILITIES.

I will stream line the process of opening a business and create pathways for work, better wages, wealth, and housing for all members of the community.

As your Mayor, I will make myself available to all members of Lompoc and I will answer or return your phone calls.

A vote for me is a vote for all the residents of the Community of Lompoc. We are better together.
